Recreation Department Basketball School to Open Sat. Morning

The Albany Recreation Department's annual basketball school will open in the high school gymnasium Saturday morning, Nov. 27 for elementary, Junior high and high school boys.

Coach St. John Smith will instruct in the fundamentals of basketball, teaching guarding, dribbling, shooting and offensive and defensive playing. Smith will be assisted by two members of the Albany High School varsity basketball team.

The basketball school dates have been set for every Saturday from 9 a.m. to 12 noon and from 1 to 4 p.m.

Registration blanks will be available Tuesday, Nov. 23 at Cornell, Marin and Codornices elementary schools, Albany High School or at the Recreation Center.

High School to Conduct Survey Of Insurance

A questionnaire is now being distributed by Charles A. Moore, principal of Albany High School, to parents of students at Albany High asking them to participate in a Nation-wide study of accident benefit plans for pupil protection.

Data received on the questionnaire will be used for statistical purposes only, Moore said.

Albany school children are now protected by medical, dental and hospital services for injuries suffered while they are under the control and authority of teachers by a unique insurance policy which provides for medical attention up to a maximum of $250.

The policy, with a premium rate of $1.25 per pupil per year paid from school district funds, is the only one of its type in the United States and is being carried by an insurance company on an experimental basis, Moore said.

Nuss, Esther Evans and Mae Anderson.

In preparation for an election of officers in December, Mrs. Clara Hanson and Mrs. Esther Evans have been appointed as a nominating committee.

Extend M'Gregor P.T.A. Rag Drive To November 26

Needy families of Albany will benefit from discarded clothing collected in the C. M. MacGregor P. T. A. rag drive which has been extended until Nov. 26, according to an announcement by Kenneth Hawkins, publicity chairman of the new P.T.A. unit.

Wearable garments will be distributed to the poor and those which are beyond use will be reprocessed for clothing, blankets, paper and industrial use. Money realized from the drive will go into the unit's child welfare fund.

Children of MacGregor School are now canvassing house to house. Residents are asked to search their attics, basements and store rooms, clean out all unused rags or clothing and have them ready when one of the young campaigners rings the doorbell.

By calling one of the following numbers, contributors to the drive may be sure of having their donation picked up: L.A. 5-9606, L.A. 5-1379 or L.A. 5-9396.

More than 100 parents attended the MacGregor P.T.A. open house on Thursday evening, Nov. 18. After a short business meeting, the parents went to the classrooms of their children where they met the teachers for an informal discussion on the accomplishments and progress of the students.

Woolworth Speaks at Berkeley-Albany PTA Council Meeting

At a meeting of the school education committee of the Berkeley-Albany P.T.A. Council on Thursday morning, Nov. 17, William Woolworth, assistant superintendent of Albany schools, spoke on "State Elementary Social Studies Framework." The council met at the Thousand Oaks School to witness a demonstration of social studies in operation.

The meeting opened with the serving of coffee and a few brief welcoming remarks by Mrs. W. Curtis Knoll, of the School's P. T. A., after which the program got underway.

The second speaker of the morning was E. B. Ingle, director of curriculum, Berkeley Public Schools, who discussed "Developing Good Citizenship Through the Social Studies."

Miss Ethel Batchelor's sixth grade class then gave a demonstration of social studies in action. The meeting concluded with a general discussion, based upon observation of the classroom work.

Thanksgiving

Our heritage . . . the spirit of our living . . . the hope of the future. In the misty beginnings of our Christian culture great characters uttered their spontaneous feeling of "giving thanks" while others preserved them in writing in the sacred books of our religions. Pilgrim fathers schooled our infant nation in the practice of "thanksgiving" even as they stumbled sorrowfully away from the graves of their loved ones lost during the fierce winter. "One ought to give thanks for the fundamentals of life—food, clothing, and shelter" they taught us. Their spirit lives on today as countless thousands express their gratitude for the good in life through service to our human family. And in the uncertain future we can be fortified with the "spirit of giving thanks" which will bring us victory and hope. FOR THANKSGIVING is the unconquerable spirit of the ages . . . the spirit of mankind . . . the spirit of God.

(Editor's note: Since this is Rev. Benefiel's first Thanksgiving in Albany as Pastor of the Community Methodist Church, we felt it would be fitting that he share with us his thoughts for this season. In his words he has given a message for all faiths and caught the true spirit of this day.)

Last Rites Held For Long-Time Albany Resident

Funeral services were held Tuesday (Nov. 23) for Louis Joseph Grandmoulin, who passed away Sunday in his home at 908 Santa Fe Ave. The 9 a. m. service at Ellis-Olson Mortuary was followed by a Mass at 9:30 a. m. in St. Ambrose Church, Berkeley.

A resident of Albany for 21 years, Mr. Grandmoulin was born in Belgium and came to this country 59 years ago. He was a retired plate glass worker and a member of Keystone Camp No. 8, Woodmen of the World, Butler, Pa.

Surviving in addition to his widow, Norine, are two daughters, Alphonine Costes; two granddaughters, Dorothy Haas and Marie Buell; two grandsons, Albany Police Sergeant Arthur Smith and Raymond Laurent; and six great grandchildren.

Albany school children are now protected by medical, dental and hospital services for injuries suffered while they are under the control and authority of teachers by a unique insurance policy which provides for medical attention up to a maximum of $250.

Teachers Will 'Go to School' In Oakland Wed.

Teachers and administrators from all Albany schools will attend a general institute for Alameda County in Oakland on Wednesday, Nov. 24 for a series of forum lectures and motion pictures.

At a morning session from 9:30 until 11:30 in the Oakland Auditorium, Dr. Paul C. Bryan, superintendent of Albany schools will serve as chairman.

Speaking on the forum for "Interpretation and Understanding of World Affairs" will be Dr. Peter Odegaard with James Day as moderator.

Dr. Odegaard is professor and head of the Department of Political Science, University of California. He is past president of Reed College, Oregon, and during the war served as assistant to the secretary of the U. S. Treasury.

Day, director of Public Affairs and Education for the National Broadcasting Company, is a graduate of U. C. His war service included personnel work, public relations and teaching of Army administration.

Subject for the afternoon session will be "Information Through the Theatrical Documentary Film." Teachers will meet at the Grand Lake Theater from 1:30 until 3:30 to see "Who's Delinquent," one of the "This Is America" series, and "The Secret Land," an M.G.M. film.

The speaker will be Mrs. Alice Fields, directors of the Department of Studios and Public Service, Hollywood. She is editor of the publication, "What's Happening in Hollywood."

All day and evening classes for Albany Schools will be closed Wednesday.

Albany Post 292, Aux. to Decorate Livermore Hosp.

Members of Albany Post 292, American Legion and the Ladies Auxiliary will go to the Livermore Veterans' Hospital on Dec. 19 to "deck the halls with boughs of holly."

The local group has been assigned this duty as part of the program of Legion posts throughout the county who each year at Christmas time decorate veterans hospitals and make every effort to bring holiday cheer to hospitalized servicemen.

Announcement of the date for the trip to Livermore was made at a meeting of the Post last Friday by Joe Olson, local delegate to the Veterans' Hospital committee.

At the same meeting, Dick McAllister, chairman of the Cub Scout committee announced that the Legion-sponsored cub pack is in need of a cubmaster. McAllister said the cubmaster need not be a member of the Legion.

According to Past Commander Jack Hamilton, the main feature of the Past Commanders' party on Dec. 17 in the Memorial Building will be the awarding of a big turkey in a drawing. Names will be selected from the Post's "pill jar."

Recently nominated for the position of manager of the 1949 Annual Snooker were D. E. Albin, Arthur Carlson, Jack Hamilton and Joe Olson. An election on Dec. 8 will decide who is to guide the affair for next year.

OPEN UNTIL 9 P. M.

The Bo-Kay Gift Shop at 1389 Solano Avenue, owned and operated by Bob and Kay Fritz, will be open Wednesdays and Fridays until 9 p.m. for early Christmas shopping.

DEDICATION CEREMONY FOR VISTA SCHOOL TO BE HELD SUNDAY, NOV. 28

Dedication exercises for the Vista School, 720 Jackson St., will be held at the school from 2 to 2:30 Sunday afternoon Nov. 28. The exercises will be followed by an open house from 2:30 to 4, during which time the public is cordially invited to inspect the building.

Arranged by the School Department, the exercises will consist of the following program:

Expression of welcome, Myles Perkins, member, Albany Board of Education; Greetings from the City Council, Charles F. Graeber, Council representative on the Board of Education; Dedication prayer, Dr. Robert Larsen, Vice-Pres. Board of Education; Presentation of Flag, Albany Auxiliary 2658, Veterans of Foreign Wars; A brief review of educational progress in Albany, Mrs. Delsa Walton, President, Board of Education; A description of educational and other features of the Vista School, Dr. Paul C. Bryan, Superintendent, Albany City Schools; A discussion of the Vista School site and its relationship to recreational facilities for Albany, Clifford Lockhart, member, Board of Education.

Vista School, which opens on Monday, Nov. 29, will house children from the kindergarten through the low 4th grade residing west of San Pablo Ave. and north of Buchanan St. It was built as part of the building program endorsed by the citizens of Albany in the School Bond Election of 1946, and will relieve congestion at Cornell School as well as provide schoolhousing for small children in the area west of San Pablo Avenue.

When is a pheasant not? Ask Wallis Collins. He may not tell you but the boys around the fire house will. Seems that Collins went out to the ranch of a friend last week-end to open the pheasant season with a bang. He got a bird in his sights, langed away, put the victim in his car and returned home. Imagine the Collins' chagrin when he proudly displayed his kill and learned from those who know of such things, that he had shot a bantam rooster belonging to his host.

The sorrow in Mudville will be as nothing compared to the woe among unattached males around Albany when they see that beco-o-otiful diamond ring Bette Green, city hall clerk, is wearing on you know what finger.

Fire Chief Fred Pimental found Miami weather "sultry" while there for a National convention of hook-ladder ladders. Glad to be back in the cool Bay Area? Yeah, man.

Cornell P.T.A. to Sponsor Social Dancing Class

The Cornell School Parent-Teacher Association will sponsor a class in social dancing for members of the seventh grade. Starting Dec. 1, the classes will be held every Wednesday from 4:30 to 5:30 under the direction of Mrs. Gladys Blankenship.

Final plans for the dancing class were made at a meeting of the P. T. A. in the school cafeteria on Nov. 22. Mrs. Earl G. Sorensen, president, presided.

Mrs. Sorensen recently announced the appointment of Mrs. Herbert Minister to the executive board. Mrs. Minister will assume the duties of Publications and Emblem Chairman. She was formerly active in P. T. A. in Vallejo.

Also appointed to the board was Mrs. Lawrence Lane, who will head the Radio and Theater committee.

Featured were Ming Trees, miniature gardens, dried weed arrangements, succulent arrangements, and felt accessories.

Mrs. Tognetti will be happy to arrange an exhibit for anyone interested. She may be contacted by telephoning L.A. 5-1430.
